Topeka is the center of the greatest apple market in the world and still Topekans are required to pay a little more than one cent each for apples. Here it is in the fall, right in the height of the apple season and good eating apples are demanding an exorbitant price. There's a reason! But what is it?

Alleging gross neglect of herself and three-year-old child, Goldie Slusser, 412 East Tenth avenue, through her attorneys, Waters, asks divorce from her husband, Frank D. Slusser. The defendant, she asserts, failed to support her, but spent his earnings on clothes for himself. She asks alimony of the court and the custody of her child.

Talking machines have been purchased at the Harrison and Polk schools for the purpose of assisting in teaching the children folk songs and dances, and other schools in Topeka are considering making similar purchases. A large number of educational records are being put out nowadays, and the talking machine is becoming more and more recognized as a valuable asset in grade schools.

He will illustrate his talk with the songs by the Boy Scout chorus and the newly organized orchestra. Volunteers will be enrolled to serve as guides and ushers while the Kansas teachers are in the city, Nov. 8-7. Fifty boys are wanted for this work.

J. Will Kelley, secretary of the Commercial club, admits that it was his fault that a number of state officials and others waited around the other day in vain for the appearance of Albert G. Bryant of the World Peace Foundation, Boston. Mr. Kelley announced that he would speak Wednesday noon, but since that time in looking up the correspondence he has had with Mr. Bryant, he discovered that it was on November 22, and not October 22, that he arranged to speak in the club rooms.

Uncollected fees in the county attorney's office total twice the amount of fees collected. W. T. Atchison filed his quarterly report with the board of county commissioners today. Fees charged and collected during the quarter ended Sept. 30, 1913, amounted to $38.16. Uncollected fees reached a total of $39.50. Just $34.15 worth of fees was collected in the district court, from which $23.63 was deducted for liquor fees for the county attorney. Fees collected in the city court totaled $35.66.

HIGGINS IN PRISON.

Paroled Prisoner's Baby Was Not Sick—Fake Message.

Hutchinson, Kan., Oct. 24.—W. L. Higgins, parole violator, is again confined in the reformatory.

H. L. Tinsley, a reformatory officer, has returned with Higgins, who had come to Fort Smith, Ark., pretending that his child was at the point of death. According to Tinsley, when he arrived at Higgins' home last Saturday morning, the baby was toddling about the yard and looked to be the picture of health. Inquiry by the officer failed to reveal the physician who had doctored the little one, if any had been called, and this they are inclined to doubt at the reformatory. It is the general belief that the telegram purporting to tell of the child's serious illness was a fake, probably sent by Higgins' wife at his request. Tinsley said the people and newspapers of Fort Smith did not know the circumstances of the case or how the would never have been such a row raised. Higgins was paroled from the reformatory a short while ago, the conditions being that he was not to leave the city and must find employment immediately. He got a job picking apples. Then he asked to be allowed to go home. This permission was refused, the officers thinking him a parole violator. Last Thursday evening he wrote Parole Officer M. E. Jolliffe a letter saying he had received a telegram that his child was at the point of death and he was going to Fort Smith.

FOUND BY MRS. WRIGHT

Immense Crowd Looked for Wa Dele at Warren M. Crosby Store.

Those who saw the immense crowd at the Warren M. Crosby store this morning thought that Wa Dele, the female impersonator, did mighty well to keep his identity hidden for twenty minutes. He had been in the store just that long when Mrs. H. B. Wright, of 417 East Eighth street, found him near the elevator at the corner section on the second floor. By stepping up to what appeared to be a stylish but modestly dressed woman and accusing "her" of being Wa Dele of the Orpheum, Mrs. Wright won for herself $10 worth of merchandise to be chosen from the stock of the Warren M. Crosby company store. In addition to that, she was given a ride about the town in a new Oakland car driven by J. R. Johnson.

In addition to the interest created by Wa Dele, the Warren M. Crosby company had inaugurated three special "hour sales" with special bargains from all over the store, so that those who were not so fortunate as to get the prize secured merchandise that repaid them for the trip down town.

Mrs. Wright is the wife of Harry Wright of the real estate firm of Lagerstrom & Wright.

STILL ON THE ROLLS.

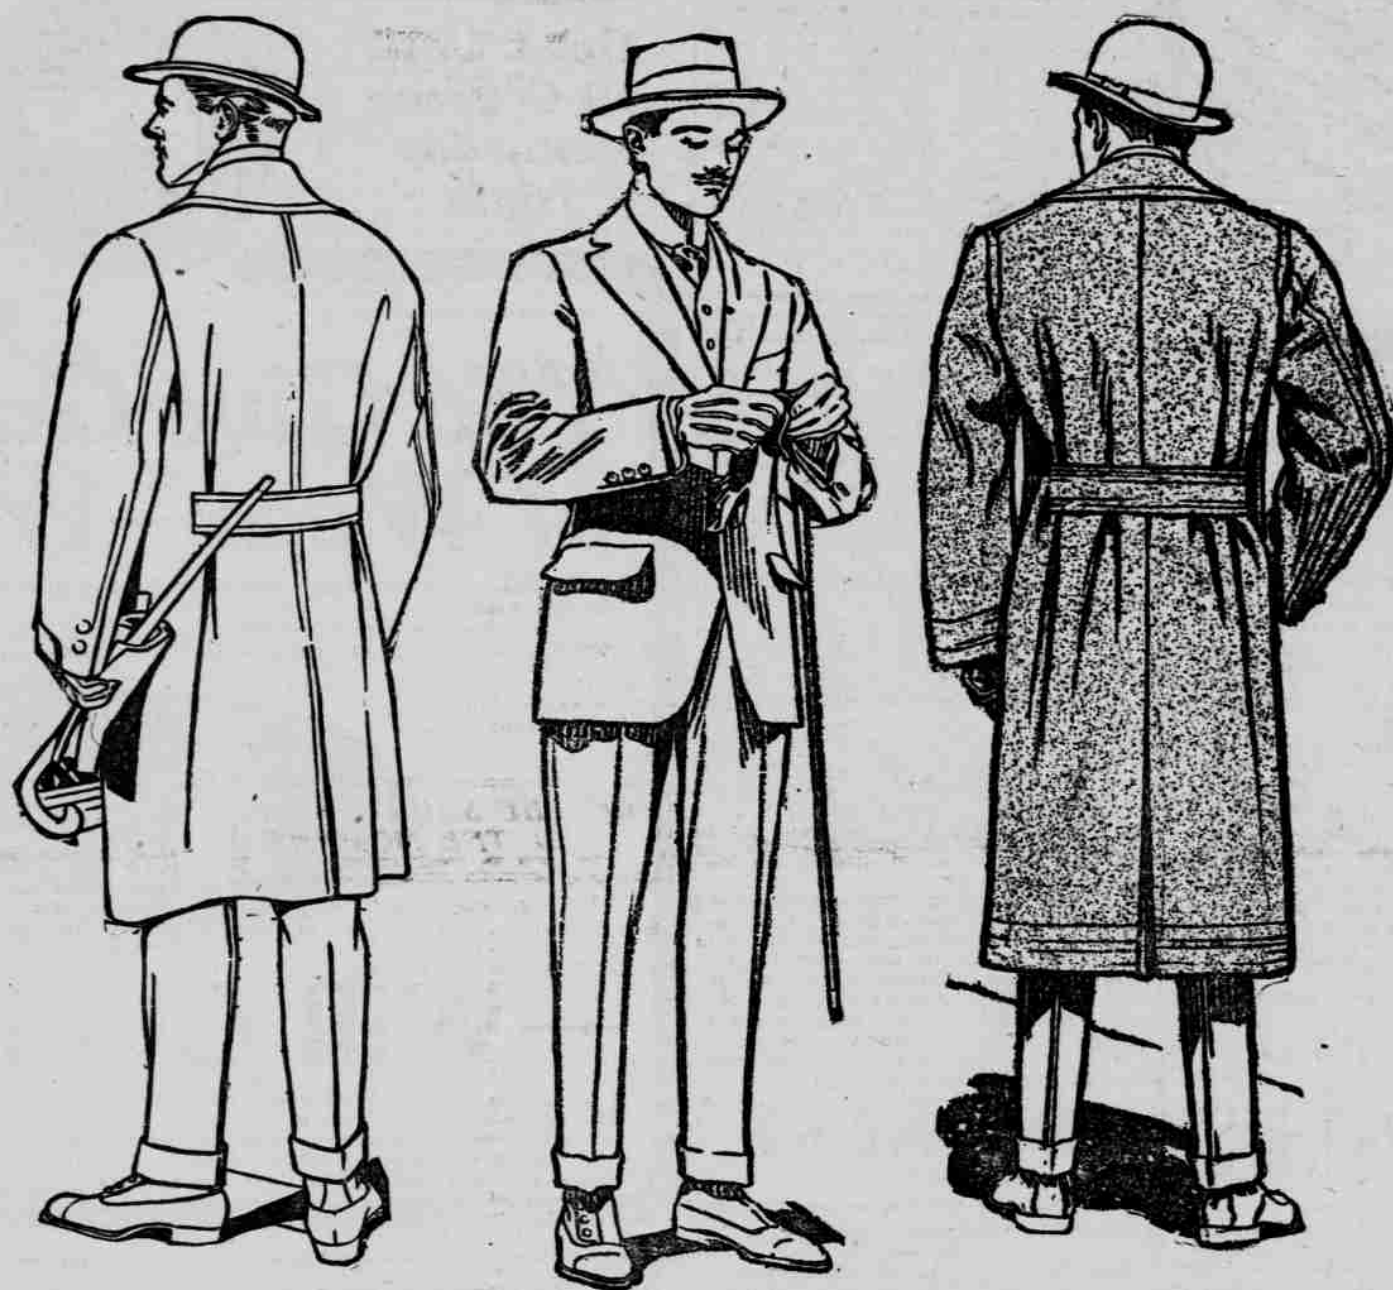

More Than One-Fifth of Civil War Soldiers Are Drawing Pensions.

Washington, Oct. 24.—More than one-fifth of the men who served in the army and navy of the United States during the Civil war were still on the government pension rolls at the beginning of the new fiscal year, according to figures issued by the pension commission. The report shows that during the past year there was a decrease of 24,881 Civil war pensioners, bringing the ranks of the veterans down to 462,379. The estimated number of men in service during the Civil war is 2,213,345.

One hundred and ninety-nine widows of veterans of the war of 1812 still draw pensions, according to the report.
